Without wishing to stir up any thing, but what has become of Alice Roosevelt and why don't the newspapers print her picture any more?

There is a great deal of sympathy for Senator LaFollette, who spoke in the senate until he was tired out. The rest of us are tired, too, and know just how weak he felt.

The Fourth of July comes on Sunday this year. Instead of making a stand for a sane fourth it will be necessary to look out for the 3rd, 4th and 5th, for in such cases the boys celebrate the day before and the day after so as to make no mistake.

The New York Central is testing a tunnel rock-cutting device that does its work without steam drill or blasting. Some day perhaps a way will be found to dispense with the pneumatic riveter, the flat car wheel and the office boy who whistles.

Santa Fe, better known as the Ancient City, has a hard time keeping in the limelight. Now that its local option campaign is a dead issue and the agitation for the commission form of government is dying out, the report comes that a "mammothly" rich gold strike has been made at Nambe Falls twenty miles north of the capital. If the gold find proves genuine, then maybe the capital site will be moved to Nambe.

TRUE THOUGHTS IN PLAIN WORDS.

Las Vegas is a peculiar, an unusually peculiar place. Its citizens start things with a rush and a wild whoop of enthusiasm. For a moment everything is hurry, bustle and confusion in an attempt to get some project on its feet. Then, just as quickly, the enthusiasm and "go" play out and we are back in our usual slothful and do-nothing condition. Thus it was and is with the sewer project.

It is essential to the health, progress and prosperity of this community that we have proper facilities for disposing of sewerage. Such miniature towns as Clovis, Portales, Artesia and Carlsbad realize this and have all of them sold sewer bonds.
Vegas seems to have appreciated the necessity but there does not seem to be enough initiative in the whole burg to take the next essential step. Why?

Well, if we were called upon to express an opinion we think we could get pretty close to the truth but inasmuch as a statement of our opinion might get under somebody's hide, or the hides of several somebodies, we refrain.

As you see, it makes us just the least bit peevish to see around us the spirit that we do see, and hereafter we are not going to try to gloss over everything that is the matter with this community. Quite probably we shall be accused of disloyalty. To such an accusation we will answer simply that we are going to make or break with the town and if it is disloyal to point out our silly and civic shortcomings we are willing to take the consequences. Moreover, a booster can't keep on boosting if no one else in the community will help out.

ADVERTISING PAYS

It will be remembered that the lower house of the recent legislature passed a scathing resolution directed at one W. F. Wilcox, a Santa Fe newspaper correspondent, condemning him for a none too complimentary descriptive article about the capital and its native residents. Wilcox affixed his signature to the article in question, thus proving that he had no malicious intentions when he wrote it. He took the censure imposed by the solons very keenly and following threats made against him by certain persons in Santa Fe, he left the city. The details of the row reached Washington and this was one of the things cited by the senate committee on territories as an argument against statehood. Eastern papers dwelt at length on the occurrence in which the legislators were condemned for taking cognizance of such a petty matter. Now word comes that Wilcox, the victim of all this muddle, has secured an excellent position on a good newspaper, the direct result of the free advertising he got out of it. After all, it is indeed an ill wind that blows no one any good.

When aerial transportation is perfected the hobo will not find it so easy to "steal" rides.

The final decision that a man's estate is liable for his expenses in the insane asylum is another argument in favor of thinking it over before going crazy.

CLOSES SUCCESSFUL REVIVAL IN GEORGIA

Rev. M. E. Dutt, pastor of the Christian church, is in receipt of a postal card from Evangelist E. E. Violet, who opens a series of religious meetings in the armory Sunday evening, stating he has just closed a most successful revival in Macon, Georgia, where on the closing night over 2,000 people packed the auditorium in that city to hear him. Mr. Violet has started for New Mexico, and will arrive probably on the California limited Sunday morning.

The following account of a meeting held by Evangelist Violet at Wilmington, N. C., recently will be of interest in view of the nearness of his visit to Las Vegas:

"An intellectual feast was spread before the minds of the large concourse of Wilmington's representative people when they gathered to hear Evangelist Violet's lecture on "The Misinterpreted Christ," at the Academy of Music yesterday. The many who heard it declare that nothing like it was ever delivered from a platform in this city before. The keynote to the lecture was a plea for the union of all God's people on the Bible alone, as an all sufficient rule of faith and practice. With a trained mind, an unceasing flow of most beautiful English, supported by a strong and pleasing personality, he held his audience spell bound for over an hour."

GRANDDAUGHTER OF

"KIT" CARSON ELOPES

La Junta, Colo., June 10.—Josephine

Carson, a pretty 18-year-old high school student, a granddaughter of Kit Carson, the famous New Mexico scout, pathfinder, Indian fighter and pioneer, eloped to Raton, N. M., with Robert G. Beech, aged 23, a ranchman of Hightree, Colo. The couple were married at Raton yesterday morning.

Kit Carson, jr., and his wife, prominent residents of La Junta, opposed Beech's attentions to their daughter, and, it is said, forbade her to have anything to do with him. The young people met clandestinely for some months. Tuesday night, Miss Carson told her parents she intended spending the night with a school girl friend.

Instead she took a southbound train at 10:30 with Beech and went to Raton.

To Make Sure That Your New Gown

—whether it is to be the "creation" of a gown-maker known to fame, or just a quiet, simple little gown, for, Oh, a number of occasions—church, calling, luncheons—to make sure that it shall have that intangible, indescribable, elusive quality called "Style," you should first pay your undivided attention to the corset over which it is to be fitted!

THE
Gossard
CORSETS
"They Face In Front"

You know, of course, that your new gown must have long lines! That is a preachment you've learned by heart! And you know that, whether you are slender or stout, you must have the look of slenderness; and, indeed, you want to look slender and you want to be comfortable at the same time!

Don't Begin With the Gown, But the Corset!

Now, it is not a difficult thing for a competent dressmaker to cut a gown on the lines demanded by Fashion this season; but, if you have neglected your corset, and, when the gown is to be fitted, the dressmaker finds bulging hips; surplus, ugly flesh at thigh, or angles which need rounding, why, you cannot blame her if the gown, when completed, does not give you that intangible, indescribable, elusive, but all-important quality, "Style!" You expected to have it, and you are disappointed!

So, first be carefully, accurately, intelligently fitted with the proper corset (there's the right model in The Gossard for you), then give your attention to your gown, and you'll stand the biggest kind of chance of being pleased and satisfied with it, when it is complete!
